Central Yeshiva Tomchei Tmimim Lubavitz
Title VI Policies and Procedures

Notice of Non-Discrimination

Qualified men of the Orthodox Jewish faith are eligible for admission to Central Yeshiva Tomchei Tmimim Lubavitz. The institution does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin (including shared ancestry or ethnic characteristics), disability, or age in its programs and activities.

Rabbi Sholom Brod has been designated to as the Title VI coordinator and is responsible for receiving and responding to all inquiries and reports regarding the institution's Title IV nondiscrimination policies. He can be contacted at 885 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, NY or 718-774-6397.

Procedures for Reporting Discrimination or Harassment

Students or employees who believe they have experienced discrimination or harassment based on race, color, or national origin may report concerns by directly contacting the Title VI Coordinator or submitting a written complaint to the Title VI Coordinator or the administrative office. All reports will be reviewed promptly, and the institution will follow the investigation and resolution procedures, as listed below.

Investigation and Resolution Procedure for Title VI Reports

When the Title VI Coordinator receives a report of discrimination or harassment, the Coordinator will:

- Document the report and determine whether it alleges discrimination based on race, color, or national origin.
- Offer supportive measures to the reporting student(s).
- Notify the reporting student of the institution's nondiscrimination policy and reporting procedures.
- Conduct a prompt review of the allegation and determine whether an investigation is warranted.
- If an investigation is required, gather relevant information, meet with involved parties as needed, and make a determination based on the available evidence.
- Communicate the outcome to the parties and implement any necessary corrective actions.
- Maintain records of the report, actions taken, and resolution.
